

ST EMLIE'S THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

01 OCTOBER

The education of youth being one of our principal aims, we cannot reflect enough on the importance of our vocation, since we are called to teach the way of salvation to the young minds whom the Lord entrusts to us.

02 OCTOBER

I wanted all my pupils to know I loved them equally, therefore, I did not let pass a day without giving to each a mark of affection, a look, a gracious smile, a kind word.

03 OCTOBER

I did it in a way that each could say my mistress thought of me today.

04 OCTOBER

I liked to treat my pupils like a tender mother, I wanted my daughters to do the same.

05 OCTOBER

My aim was God's honour and the good of the children.

06 OCTOBER

Sisters! I implore you to bear with great patience the faults and thoughtlessness of the children.

07 OCTOBER

The exterior behaviour of children should not hinder us from loving them without preference, we should even show more love to those who give more trouble.
